ROCK 'N' BOWL

Spring Weekend

Floralia XVIII
May 6, 1995

Dave Binder

Tens of thousands of firefighters fought a summer-long battle against scores of fires that burned more than three million acres of woodlands across the parched Western states. Flames scorched a range of well-known locations, including the Jackson Hole ski valley and western Wyoming's Grand Teton National Park.

Brazil's offense got all the attention beforehand, but its defense wound up stopping Italy--and winning the World Cup, soccer's ultimate prize.

The first reports were surprising enough: Simpson was suspected in the brutal slashing murder of his ex-wife Nicole and her friends, Ronald Goldman. But it was his arrest that proved unforgettable. While police followed and crowds watched, Simpson had a friend drive him along southern California's freeways.

Chechen rebels have stung the Kremlin with bitter truths: big is not always better, the desire for independence is a powerful weapon, and Moscow's military machine can be made to bleed. Outmanned and outgunned, the Chechens' fierce resistance has stunned and humiliated the Russian army and made fools of generals desperate for victory.

It rained. Thousands crashed the gates. People with tickets couldn't get in or had to wait for hours. Portable toilets overflowed. Food occasionally ran short. Woodstock '94 looked alot like the original 1969 rock festival--right down to the fans.

A string of Pacific storms led to the deaths of at least 11 people and caused more than $300 million in flood damage across the state of California in January 1995.

Newt Gingrich wanted to be speaker of the House years before he managed to win a House seat, and he long ago laid plans for the Republican takeover most of his colleagues considered an impossible dream.

The 1994 baseball season ended not with a home run or a strikeout, but with a conference call and a fax. On the 34th day of the major league players strike, the team owners canceled the rest of the season, including the playoffs and the World Series. "This is a sad day," said acting commissioner Bud Selig in a fax distributed to the media. He got no argument. Not from the players and certainly not from the fans.

It was a match made in tabloid heaven: the child of one of two biggest stars in rock history married the other biggest star in rock history. Lisa Marie Presley go hitched to the reclusive Michael Jackson. After weeks of dodging photographers the couple made a very public coming out: they opened the MTV Music Video Awards ceremony.

Japan's nightmare of a disastrous urban earthquake came true on January 17, 1995 when a powerful quake tore through hundreds of buildings, touching off raging fires and killing more than 5,000 people. The city of Kobe, the site of the worst destruction, is a gateway for more than 12 percent of Japan's export.

The United States went to the brink of invading Haiti, its poor, unsettled neighbor to the south. But at the last minute Haiti's military rulers bowed to the United Nations and promised to cede power to the duly elected president whom they had ousted, Jean-Bertrand Aristide.

Andre Agassi was one of the best known entrants in the 1994 U.S. Open, but a year of largely indifferent tennis had left him unseeded and unheralded. So everyone was amazed when he won the tournament--including Agassi. " I'm still in a state of shock," he told the crowd at the U.S. Tennis Center in New York.

They headed north on almost anything that would float, including rafts made of the flimsiest materials: oil drums, inner tubes, wooden planks. They were Cuba's boat people--tens of thousands of people desperate to come to the United States to escape the poverty and hunger of their increasingly isolated island Communist nation.

The civil war in Rwanda began with a plane crash that killed the president. Before the year was over another 500,000 Rwandans had been killed and 2 million had fled the African nation for the relative safety of squalid camps in Zaire and other neighboring countries.

The nation's 108th Supreme Court justice couldn't wait to get to work. So Stephen G. Breyer was sworn in at a private ceremony on August 3, nine days before a public ceremony in the East Room of the White House.

The San Francisco 49ers scored early and often on January 29 to defeat the San Diego Chargers 49-26 in a Super Bowl that quickly turned into the rout the experts had predicted. Steve Young was unanimously named the game's most valuable player.

Helicopters fly over Somalis waiting for food and supplies, as part of UN operation UNOSOM II. The United Nations initiated the mission to provide humanitarian relief and aid to a Somalia devastated by civil war, drought, and famine. Although many lives were saved, the UN recently terminated its relief operation because of the instability of the country's political system and the subsequent member casualties that arose.

"Brazil, where hearts were entertained in June, we stood beneath an Amber moon, and softly murmured 'someday soon.' We kissed and clung together, then tomorrow was another day, the morning found me miles away, with still a million things to say. Now when twilight beams the sky above, recalling thrills of our love, there's one thing I'm certain of, Return I will to old Brazil."

"Think what a better world it would be if we all- the whole world- had cookies and milk about 3 o'clock every afternoon and then lay down with our blankies for a nap. Or if all governments had as a basic policy to always put things back where they came from and to clean up their own mess.

And it is still time, no matter how old you are-when you go out into the world, it is best to hold hands and stick together."

Remember when...

the food was so good in Harris
that people actually lined up to eat?

you pulled your first all-nighter?

and...

Harkness Green was still a marsh?

Knowlton dormitory was a hotel?

and...

the Connecticut College car was a Model T, not a Saab?

Connecticut College was a school for women?

Dear Catherine,

WITH LOVE

AND PRIDE

MOM

FOR AMY LEIGH HANOIAN-

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

By Robert Frost

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubt if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I-
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Forever,
Mom and Dad

FOR CASEY-

MAY YOUR GLOW CONTINUE TO LIGHT
THE LIVES OF ALL YOU SHINE ON.....
