Mascot makeover Camel haute couture reaches new heights

Spring is the time for a new wardrobe, especially when your 20-year-old camel suit (left) is looking a little the worse for wear. The new and improved camel made its debut at a CC men's hockey game last month. The project was funded by the college's Human Endowment Program, which boosts institutional pride.

BEFORE The limp-eared, ragged look:
Walked a mile too far, big guy, or just retaining water?

Lose that blue eye-shadow. Too '70s.

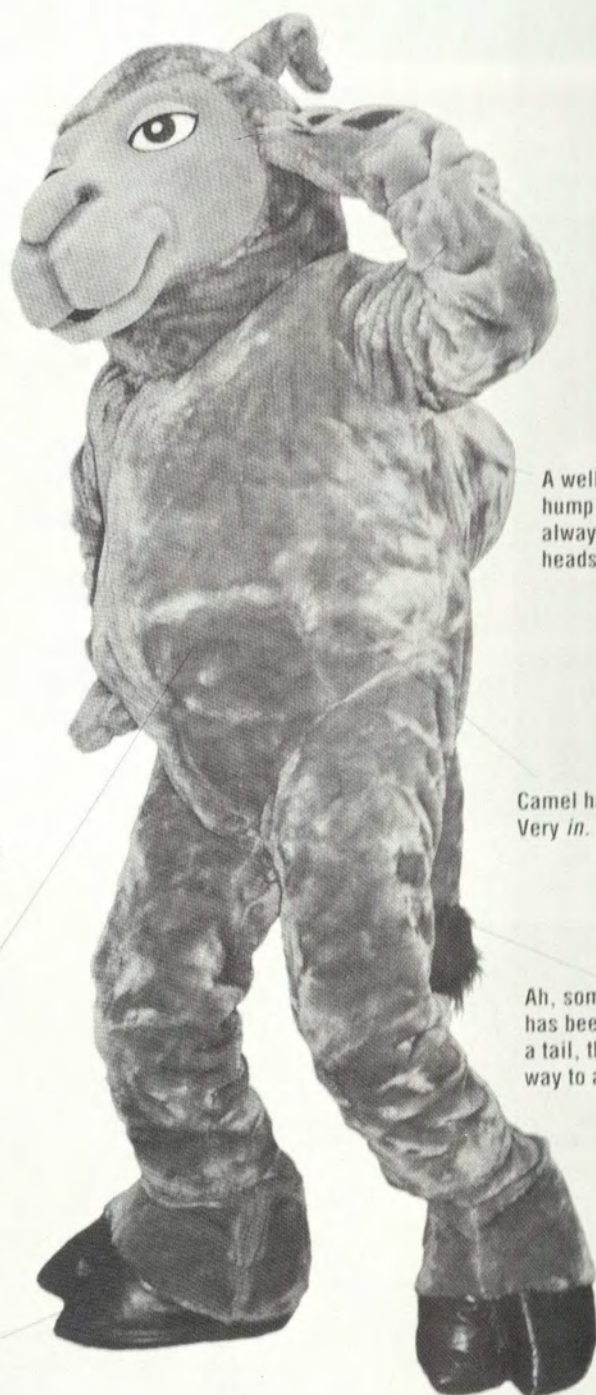

Busted zipper. If your mother only knew!

Hide those hands if you need a manicure!

Mangy coat. Trot on down to the drugstore and invest in a bottle of Camel Sheen. It'll do wonders.

Undistinguished footwear. Now, why the guy on the right has hooves on the hind feet and paws on the front, we couldn't tell you.

AFTER The spunky, hip look:
Strut your stuff on the fashion runway!

A well-toned hump will always turn heads!

Camel hair. Very in.

Ah, something new has been added — a tail, the perfect way to accessorize!

MUSIC

This year the theme of the Music Department was centered around the centennial death of Johannes Brahms.

Johannes Brahms (1833-1897)

Yoko Matsuda performed Michio Mamiya's Sonata for Violin Solo, Partita No. 2 in D Minor for Violin Solo by J.S. Bach, and Bartok's Sonata for Solo Violin.

ENTERTAINMENT

Talujon Percussion Quartet
is the quartet in residence at Connecticut College.

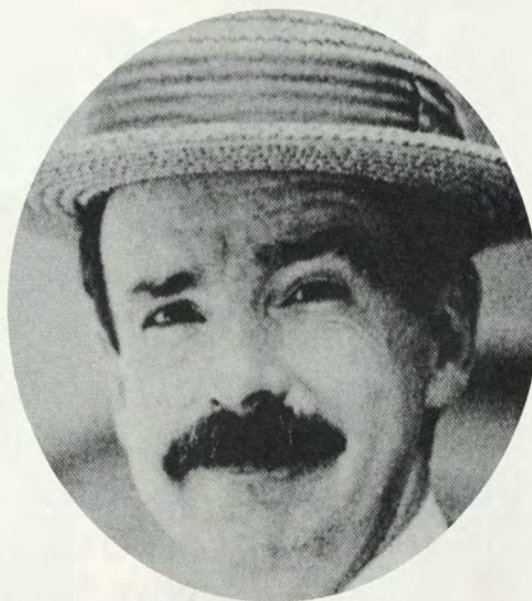

The members of the quartet are:

Michael Lipsey (Adjunct Instructor of Music at CONN),
David Cossin, Dominic Donato and Thomas Kolor.

To achieve all possibilities of percussion, Talujon sometimes uses over 100 instruments during a performance. Some of these include traditional drums, castanets, cowbells and bongos, but other items such as tin cans, mixing bowls, sheet metal pieces and even water are used to bring a unique contemporary twist to percussion.

The group performs a wide range of musical numbers, some 50 years old and composed by John Cage, and some written last year specifically for Talujon to perform. The group has also composed at least half-dozen of the titles of its repertoire, several of which are featured on their 1996 CD "Hum".

Ed Stivender

Ed Stivender called the "Robin Williams of Storytelling" headlined the 16th Annual Connecticut Storytelling Festival which is sponsored by the Connecticut College Storytelling Center, located on campus.

Stivender's program "Myth America: The American Folklore Show," featured tales that were warm, affectionate, funny and moving.

Coundert Lecture on Chinese Art
by Professor Xianrang Yang
Director of the Folk Art Center of the Central Academy of Fine Art, in Beijing China, on
"Folk Art in America"

translation by Professor Charles Chu

Professor Emeritus of Chinese Charles Chu created this winsome dromedary especially for the Honor Roll of Giving issue of the Connecticut College magazine. The calligraphy reads: "Connecticut College - the Journey Continues".

Koiné would like to thank the following people in College Relations: Marry Farrar (Connecticut College Magazine) and Cathleen Hinsch (Calendar) for allowing us to use some of the pictures within the arts & entertainment section of this yearbook. Special thanks to Susan Lindberg for allowing us to use the pictures in the freshmen facebook. We would also like to thank Mike King for providing yearbook with sports information and pictures.

ART

Young Fortune Teller with Mojo Bag by Maureen McCabe visually depicts the positive excitement and chaos of magic and chance. The work is assembled on an antique wooden pinball machine and incorporates a 1908 fortune teller game. The gypsy's wheel has stopped permanently on the Ace of Clubs - prosperity, domestic concord, peace of mind, a letter, success in business, good news. The mojo bag from New Orleans adds a touch of protection and luck.

ART

Hayrake
encaustic on wood
by Timothy McDowell

My work has a premise, a proposed equilibrium between the metaphysical and phenomenal, which if successful, allows in each painting a visual equivalence to exist between the representational elements and the abstract occurrences of the medium. The subjects of allegory, botany, decorative motif, metaphor and pseudo-science are my imagery sources.

view-Master view
2 pulse laser holograms, welded steel frames
by Andrea Wollensak

My recent work has utilized optical, digital and holographic technologies to explore issues of time and place, and to conflate or transcend the dichotomies that characterize many of the new visual technologies such as virtual/real, active/passive, absence/presence.

ART

Magnetic Field #8
acrylic on canvas
by Pamela Marks

I seek to explore personal affinities with nature as well as the factual. Examining central forms of plant and animal organization has been a continual source for my imagery. The various manifestations of energy that create patterns of growth and form in nature and visual connection between these elements is central to the work. This morphology of plant and animal is then transformed into a painterly language and space.

These pieces are part of an installation of outdoor works at my studio in Quaker Hill. A particular pleasure in making outdoor kinetic works in placing them so they can catch the light and wind in interesting ways.

Harvest Fest, Halloween, and holiday parties. Places to go and people to meet. Throughout the hubbub and hectic schedules of freshman year, there was certainly no lack of entertainment or activities. With days passing like seconds, freshman still managed to find time for fun and new friends.

Bonding Moments

Spending time with roommates and learning to cope with tight living conditions played a large role in the life of every freshman. With a little patience and a lot of respect, many freshman found themselves creating great friendships (and great Kodak moments) with their roommates.

Never a drag.

Whether in the middle of class or in the middle of the drag ball, unique personalities were to be discovered everywhere. Freshman quickly learned that without the restrictions of high school, independence gave them the opportunity to experience new lifestyles of their own and to encounter those of others.

All in a whirl.

Whether spinning on the dance floor or on that big machine outside of Cro, memorable moments were not hard to come by. With friends close at hand to share these moments and to laugh with us, a freshman's first year of freedom was full of potential for excitement and new beginnings.

Dorm Dynamics

Learning the rules of the dorm and facing the reality of having to pay dorm dues were some of the actualities that freshman encountered. Having never lived in such a community, coming to an understanding of these rules was one of the first aspects of college life to which the freshman had to adjust.

Sophomore Secret Agents...

Your mission, should you choose to accept it, is to somehow make time for all your extracurricular activities, while still maintaining that 4.0 GPA so you can get a job when you graduate. So prepare to enter the world of the sophomore... but beware, it can be exciting, dangerous, and heartbreaking, so take things as they come, and above all, have fun!!

Whether it was indoors or out, we all found ways to spend our weekends--hanging out with the boys in... which dorm were we in? to playing in the park with just the girls or taking a study break on the green, we all managed to fit relaxation into those two days which always ended up being much too short.

So you think you want to be thirty, do you?? With everything going on at CONN, it's amazing we don't all stay here forever. From TNE's to Crush Parties, OVCS to Dining Services, and SGA to SAC, not to mention the plethora of other clubs on campus-- it's no wonder we don't always make it to our Monday 8:30 class!

SAC is so much fun. It's great to be able to plan so many of the events on campus.

It's been said that sophomores rule the school, whether that is true or not, we are involved in many aspects of life at Conn. Class Council plans, TNE's and the Sophomore Formal, as well as involving themselves in other school-wide activities, such as Harvest Fest, where there were live fish to be had by one and all.

"Being the yearbook Publisher as a sophomore has been extremely challenging, but my wonderful staff makes all of the hard work worth it."

Trick or Treat!!!

It's that time again, to change your clothes, your hair, your make-up, even your personality. Some wanted to look as different as possible, while others went for the group option of dressing the same-- although a few of us may have taken that concept to a new level. Whatever we all chose to be, it was still good to get back to our old selves the next day.

LIFE

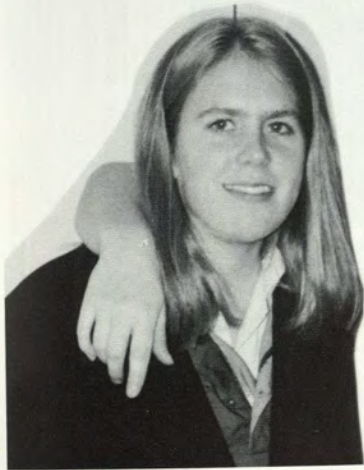

En zafiros entallense sus hechos;
Tributele la patria mil honores;
Pues de sus hijos en los nobles pechos
Transplanto la virtud lozanzas flores;
Y en el amor del bien siepmre deschechos
Veran los gobernantes y senores
Al noble pueblo que con fiel ventura
Cristina educacion siempre procura.

Y cual de rubio sol en la manana
Vierten oro los rayos esplendentes,
Y cual la bella aurora de oro y grana
Esparce sus colores refulgentes;
Tal la noble intruccion ofrece ufana
De virtud el placer a los vivientes.
Y ella a nuestra cara patria ilustre
Inmortal esplendor ofrece y lustre.

From princess to “nature goddess”.
We are so very proud !
As Piglet said to Pooh,
“I wonder what’s going to happen
exciting today?”.
May all your days be exciting.
Love, Mom + Dad & Caroline

Senior Editors' Page

Well, we have had a lot of fun laying out this year's senior section of Koine. We would just like to thank everyone who helped us to put this section together; Anne, Amy, Carey, etc. Without you, it would never have been finished. We would also like to thank our friends for being patient with us while working on the yearbook!

We would also like to wish everyone in the class of 1997 good luck. It has been a great four years (or three, for the transfer students among us!) and we wish you many more wonderful years!

Senior Editors,

Susan Bonk
Suong Do

PRESIDENT BILL CLINTON AND VICE PRESIDENT AL GORE

maintained a strong and consistent lead in the polls during their campaign for four more years in the White House. The Democratic team campaigned on a "four more years" platform that featured a strong economy and a lower crime rate. During his first term, Clinton formed a very close partnership with Gore, who served as confidant and advisor.

Bob Dole retired after 35 years in Congress to devote himself full time to run for President. At the age of 73, the former senator from Kansas would be the oldest person elected to a first term as president. As his running mate, he picked Jack Kemp, an active Republican and former cabinet member. Dole and Kemp promised to give President Clinton a "run for his money." They attacked the president's character and ethics while promoting the Republican 15 percent tax cut.

Ross Perot, who four years earlier won more votes than any other independent Presidential candidate in 80 years, launched a campaign as the 1996 nominee of the Reform Party. The 66-year-old Texas billionaire was a less formidable figure than he was in 1994, but a very vocal candidate nevertheless. Lacing his speeches with inspirational anecdotes from American history and his own life, Perot lambasted budget deficits and big government.

For the first time since the 1993 Gulf War, the American military took action against Iraq and its leader, Saddam Hussein. Iraq sent its troops into the Kurdish enclave in northern Iraq and in retaliation, the United States launched air attacks against Hussein's southern air defenses. Hussein has abused his people since the ruling Baath party assumed power nearly 30 years ago. And since the end of the Gulf War he has continued to assassinate his political enemies.

Benjamin Netanyahu, the 47-year-old leader of the Likud political party, was elected Primer Minister of Israel. He declared that his government would honor the existing agreements on peace and security issues and would continue to negotiate toward a final peace agreement in the Middle East.

Boris Yeltsin was re-elected President of Russia and pledged to continue the reforms he began five years ago. However, the 65-year-old president began immediately to show the signs of severe heart problems. It was announced that he had at least two heart attacks in the past two years and open-heart surgery was considered the only solution to his life-threatening disease.

Shannon Lucid is a new record holder. The 53-year-old shuttle astronaut veteran set the women's record for consecutive days in orbit at 188 beating Russian cosmonaut Elena Kondakova. She also amassed 223 days in orbit since 1995, making her America's most experienced astronaut.

Months after TWA Flight 800 exploded in midair in the summer of 1996, investigators were still searching for a cause. The Boeing 747 jumbo jet plunged into the Atlantic Ocean off the coast of Long Island, N.Y., just minutes after taking off from Kennedy Airport for Paris. All 230 people on board were killed. The theories ranged from a mechanical failure to a bomb, from an exploded fuel tank to a missile.

Peace in the Middle East remained unstable as the school year began. A crisis erupted after Israel opened a new exit in a tunnel alongside a plateau, raising suspicions among Muslims that the Israeli were seeking to change the delicate religious balance in Jerusalem's Old City. The incident proved to be the breaking point in mounting Palestinian frustrations with the lack of movement in carrying out the peace accords. Demonstrations followed where nearly 100 people were killed. The emergency meetings were arranged by President Clinton in Washington between Benjamin Netanyahu and Yasir Arafat.

Hong Kong was a British colony on the brink of great change in 1997. Great Britain's lease on Hong Kong was set to expire on July 1, 1997 and the Chinese were poised to reclaim the island. After 100 years of British rule, British administration and jurisdiction over Hong Kong will end and it will become a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China.

Olympic gold medal winner Michael Johnson has what track coaches call speed endurance -- the ability to carry top speed. He proved he had endurance-plus, Johnson won an unprecedented double win in the Summer Olympics in Atlanta. He won the 200 and 400 meter races. He was also the overwhelming favorite in the 200, but a case of food poisoning weakened him and he failed to qualify for the final.

A deadly explosion disrupted the Olympic Games. Just as the Games were turning Atlanta into a giddy metropolis overflowing with tourists, a black-powered pipe bomb packed with nails exploded in the crowded Centennial Olympic Park. One person died instantly and another died of a heart attack. More than 100 people were injured and, as the school year opened, nobody was charged with the crime.

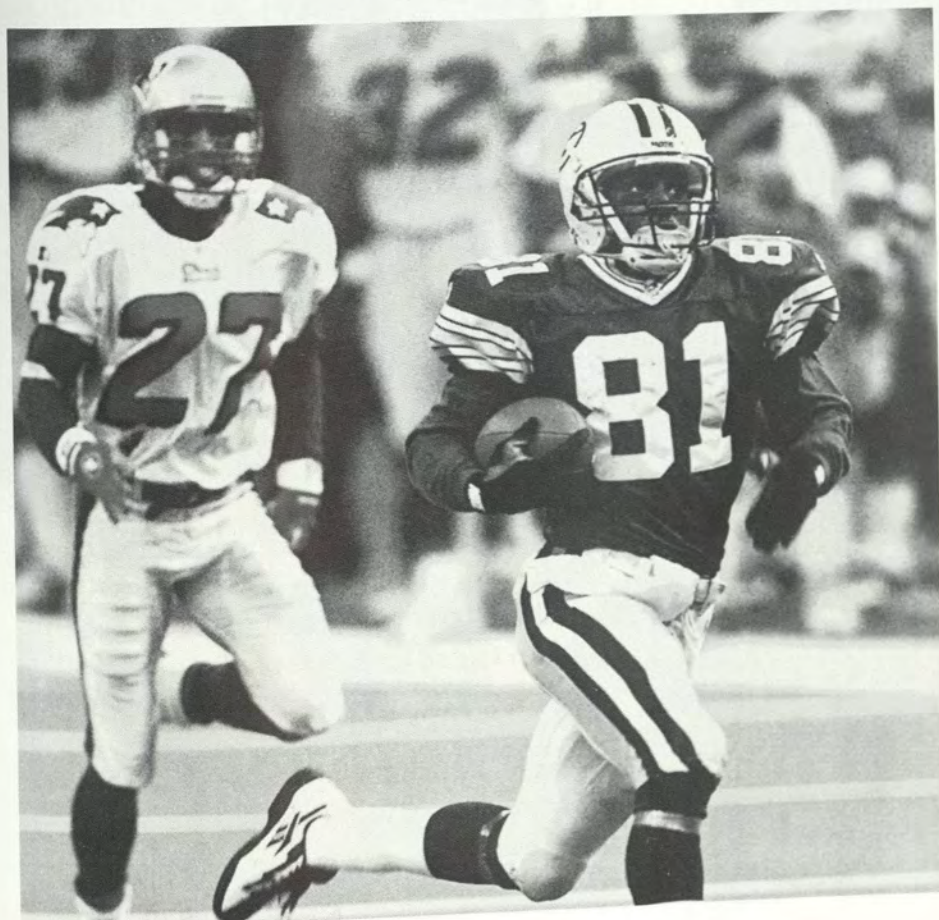

The seven members of the U.S. women's gymnastic team won the unlikeliest of the gold medals in the unlikeliest of fashions. The member Kerri Strug made the clinching vault on a bad ankle, and became an Olympic heroine the instant she landed. Her coach, Bela Karolyi, carried her to the stand to be awarded the medal.

The New York Yankees brought a world championship back to the Bronx by edging the defending champion Atlanta Braves 3-2 in Game 6 of the World Series. This was the first championship for the Yankees since 1978, and their 23rd overall.

It was late in the third quarter when Desmond Howard of the Green Bay Packers returned his first kick off for a touchdown as a pro. And it was a whopper - a 99-yard return for the longest kick off return in Super Bowl history. The Packers went on to beat the New England Patriots 35-21 in Super Bowl XXXI.

Tracy Chapman was back on the charts with her latest album "New Beginning." As one critic wrote: "One thing Tracy Chapman has inevitably gained over the years is polish. This new album is simply and impeccably orchestrated, tightly and urbanely played. The songs are adorned with soft jazz counterments."

Alanis Morissette has talent that seems to know no limit. Her debut album, "Jagged Little Pill," attracted considerable attention thanks to the hit single "You Oughta Know," a fiery, graphic rant at a former boyfriend. Morissette delivers the deeply personal lyrics with a dramatic voice and a dynamic rhythm. As one critic puts it: "She lashes out at her targets with a fury that makes her music both invigorating and frightening."

Celine Dion had the impossible good fortune of taking two movie songs -- "Beauty and the Beast" and "Because You Loved Me" (from Up Close and Personal) and took them to the top of the charts. The Canadian performer has a dynamic voice that raises even the most modest material to a level of loveliness. Her latest release, "Falling Into You", was a runaway hit.

Hootie & the Blowfish was once described as a well-meaning fourpiece band from South Carolina who made a pleasant but otherwise unremarkable album that should have sold maybe a million copies and instead sold more than 13 million. So it goes. For their next act, Hootie and the group produced "Faithweather Johnson." And if only half of the people who bought "Cracked Rear View" buy this one, the group will have a multi-million seller, again.

Hyped as the most popular British band since the Beatles, Oasis is a million-selling rock band that is about to begin work on its third album. After abruptly canceling a U.S. tour, they denied reports that the group would split up. The group's first two albums have sold 20 million copies.

Three years ago Dave Matthews -- a South African who settled in Virginia as a teenager -- put together a quintet that became one of the biggest draws on to the concert circuit. The Dave Matthews Band brought funk into the mainstream, as one critic said. And nontraditional instruments, such as the violin and the sax, expanded the band's sound and universal appeal.

The Fugees hit the charts with their best-selling album "The Score." One critic said: "The Fugees sound, style and spirit, without question, goes a long way to dispel the stereotypical approach to making modern urban melodies."

Three years ago Jewel was a fledgling singer-songwriter living on carrots and peanut butter sandwiches. Now, the 22-year-old performer from Alaska is a smashing success. Her debut album of bittersweet folk songs, "Pieces of You," just went platinum. Jewel sings many of the songs on the album in a crystalline voice while playing her acoustic guitar.

A R&B pop singer named Toni Braxton hit the charts about three years ago and hasn't left. Her latest hit album, "Secrets", blends her rich smooth voice with a versatility that continues to grow with each new hit. "Secrets" has the firepower to carry Toni to the top.

William Jefferson Clinton began his second term in January 1997 as the 42nd President of the United States. He placed his left hand on a family bible held by his wife, Hillary, and took the 35-word oath of office administered by Chief Justice William H. Rehnquist, who wished him "Good Luck."

Dear Sarah,
As we look back on your 22 years, we see that the road was scattered with signs of the person you have become. You began wandering early ( 4 months ) with a pull, scrunch, inchworm crawling motion. A test of wills (what happened to those bussels sprouts?) was a frequent diversion, with your parents losing more times than is comfortable to admit. Involvement in projects frequently found you short of sleep (like in 3rd grade when you were in the King and I). Commitment to excellence never relaxed as you emersed yourself in church, clubs and academic life in school.

At Conn you have committed yourself back to pioneer roots. You established a Madrigal group, helped build the BCM group, and you have traveled a half a world away and come back home. With confidence we can say...
"Watch out world, here comes Sarah"

God bless you. We love you. Mom and Dad

Finally presenting the answers to the ten most frequently asked questions about Christopher Martin
over the last four years.

10. Define "normal."
9. Like a ballerina in a full body cast.
8. First he finds out she's married. Then he finds out she's the president.
7. They promised him a business card. He never dreamed they'd want to see what he wanted to put on it.
6. There's no way to tell which is the evil twin until it's too late.
5. It was a clever cover for his gambling compulsion. Who knew he'd actually have to type it all up?
4. Because he thought a course about "Gay and Lesbian Literature" would be a great place to meet girls.
3. It started out blond, then got progressively darker until all of a sudden it turned pink.
2. Apparently one of his father's Y chromosomes was defective.
1. We could not be prouder of him if he had actually attended the Coast Guard Academy as he thought. (That turn off of Rt. 95 is tricky.)

But there's no question we love you, Chris

All the best for all your dreams.

1997 Publisher's Page

If you are reading this page then that means the 1997 yearbook is finally done !!!!!!!!!!!!!!! This been the worst and best time of my life. I started out the semester with an entirely new staff. In fact, I had to create new positions to accomodate everyone. I've learned so much this year. It was hard trying to figure out what to do in the beginning. But things got worse as time went on. A sinus infection and then bronchitis came at the wrong time. Then, losing Mark Hoffman as an advisor was a shock. Mark, I wish you the best of luck at Dartmouth. CONN will never be the same without you. I wish you could have stayed until May, but as long as you are happy, that is what counts. Take care of yourself.

I never realized how hard being the Publisher was when I agreed to take on this position. I wish I could have started the 1997 yearbook over the summer, but I was too busy finishing the 1996 yearbook. Being organized from the beginning would have been extremely helpful which is why Amy Danna and Jared Castiglione, the 1998 Co-Publishers of Koine, have done. I've slowly taken on the role of advisor for them. I wish I could be there to help them in the fall, but I am currently in Taiwan and will be studying away there until January. Good luck Amy and Jared with the 1998 yearbook!! Thank you for all your help with the 1997 yearbook!

My wonderful staff (please refer to pages 86 and 87) made all of the trouble that I went through for yearbook worth it. The 4-6 hours of sleep a day, all of the phone calls and voice mail messages for yearbook, in addition to taking 18 credits and working to earn some money (being Publisher is not a paid position- but it should be!!), and being on CCASA exec. board was a lot to handle. Not a day went by that I didn't have to do something for yearbook. But if I didn't do Koine, then I wouldn't have gotten to know my friends, Amy and Jared. Special thanks to Megan "Flame" Tepper-Rasmussen for taking over the position of Student Life Editor (we lost the first editor because she took a personal leave). Special thanks to Needasabrina Russel. Needa, I know you tried your best and I'm sorry you had so many problems with getting pictures from the faculty. Having the printer break down during senior week was the worst thing that could have happened.

A faster computer (than a Mac II SE?????) and some cameras for the photographers would have also made life for the staff a LOT easier. (Next year, we will hopefully have these).

I will be eternally grateful to Amy Danna, my Assistant to the Publisher, for typing this page for me. I had to leave the country before I had the chance to do it myself, so I emailed it to her. Thank you also to the following people, the Office of Student Life (especially Doreen), Christine Cyr Goodwin, Linda Bendfeldt, the Accounting Office, College Relations, and to anyone else who helped this yearbook. Finally, thanks to Steve George for the blueprints to help carry out the theme.

A lot of time and effort went into this yearbook. It's done!!! It's done. I hope you appreciate it. Take the time next year to tell Amy and Jared that they are doing a great job. No one ever appreciates the ones in charge, all they ever hear are the complaints. This page is my chance to thank everyone who helped me and to get some recognition for all of the hours I put into yearbook. I've enjoyed doing yearbook even though there were some times I thought I would go insane because of it. I'll never forget my sophomore year in college. I'll be back in January to CONN, and that is when I'll finally get to see this yearbook. I'll do a better job my senior year for yearbook because I will know what in the world I'm doing this time. Thanks for the memories.
