"Don't worry if you don't have a great job right out of college. Spend the rest of your twenties gaining as many different experiences as you can. Take control of your education—from now on it's entirely up to you, which is both freeing and daunting. Learn more about things that cross your path "by chance." Never let yourself lose your sense of curiosity and tolerance.."

"The best advice I can give is to quote Abraham Lincoln, who told a young army officer who was squabbling with his superiors: 'Quarrel not at all. No man resolved to make the most of himself can spare time for personal contention. Still less can he afford to take all the consequences, including the vitiating of his temper, and the loss of self-control. Yield larger things to which you can show no more than equal right; and yield lesser ones, though clearly your own. Better give your path to a dog, than be bitten by him in contesting for the right. Even killing the dog would not cure the bite.'"

"Get involved in public policy issues, but strive to be more than just another advocate in the debate. Through exploration and discovery, how might you help raise the level of discussion? Could you develop a research design to learn who is right about what? What ideas are supported by an honest look at the evidence? Bring these refinements into the debate, to help others rule out discredited ideas and to focus ones that are at least plausible."

Neither Bloody nor Bowed

They say of me, and so they should,
It's doubtful if I come to good.
I see acquaintances and friends
Accumulating dividends,
And making enviable names
In science, art, and parlor games.
But I, despite expert advice,
Keep doing things I think are nice,
And though to good I never come--
Inseparable my nose and thumb!

"I am not ashamed of the Gospel, because it is the power of God for the salvation of everyone who believes....For in the Gospel a righteousness from God is revealed, a righteousness that is by faith from first to last, just as it is written: 'The righteous will live by faith'."

JEROMY J. REYNOLDS

Son,

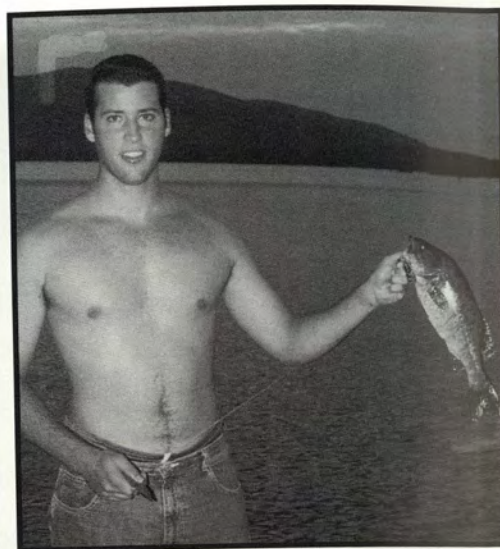

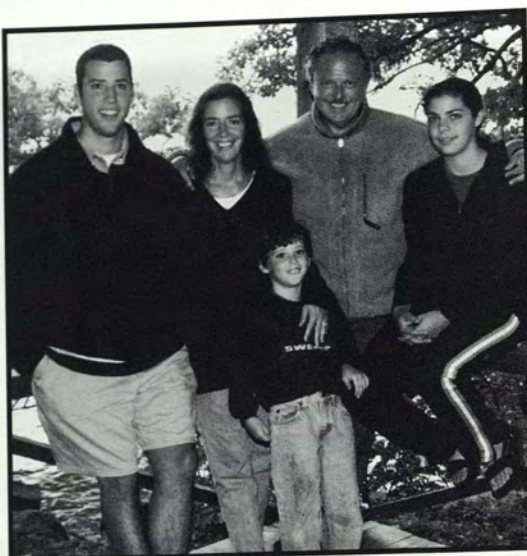

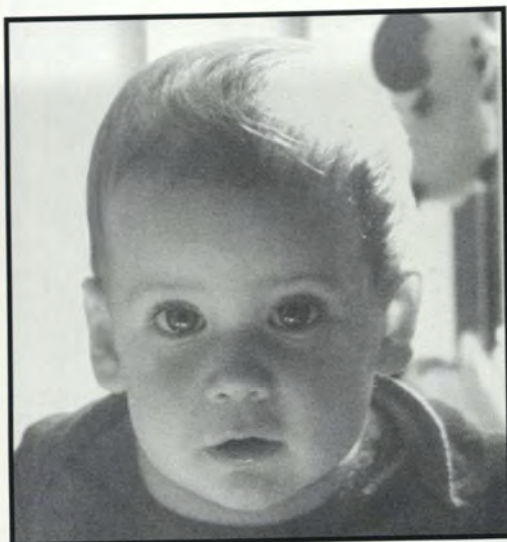

The book of life reads fast. May your new choices be as successful as you years at Connecticut College. Remember, the decisions you make, based on the choices life gives you, will make all the difference to your future. Do remember, for the most part people make their own luck. Love, God, (one and the same) and family are the only things worth living for. I pray you will attain them all before your book closes. If you make the right choices and god willing, your final chapter will be one of peace of mind with no regrets. There is no better ending.

I'm proud of you and I Love you,

Your Father

She was a phantom of delight
When first she gleamed upon my sight;
A dancing shape, an image gay,
To haunt, to startle, and waylay.

And now I see with eye serene
The very pulse of the machine;
The reason firm, the temperate will,
Endurance, foresight, strength and skill.

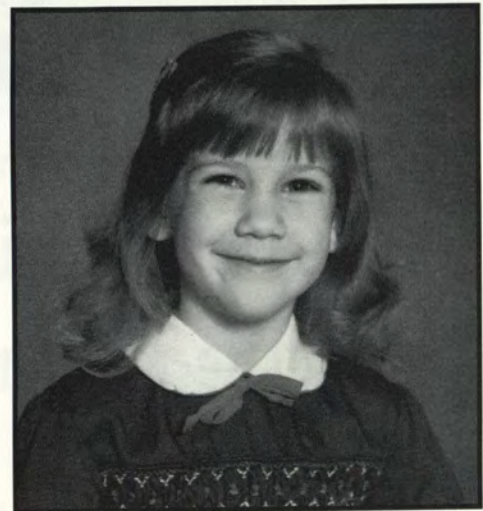

And yet a spirit still, and bright
With something of angelic light.
