90th Commencement

Dear Members of the Class of 2008,

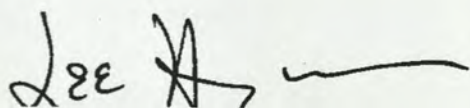

I am delighted to extend my sincere congratulations to each and every one of you. Four years ago, you joined a remarkable community, a community that values academic excellence and shapes ethical, informed citizens. You are now ready to take the next step forward along a path you will create for yourself. I know your education at Connecticut College has in many ways shaped who you are today. I hope you carry the best of the College with you always.

Your class will always be very special to me. You are passionate learners who are truly engaged in the campus community and in the world. I have enjoyed getting to know you, both as a class and as the bright, fascinating individuals you are. Your support of the College and your participation in this dynamic and vibrant community are inspirational.

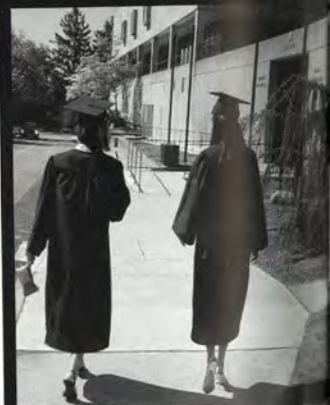

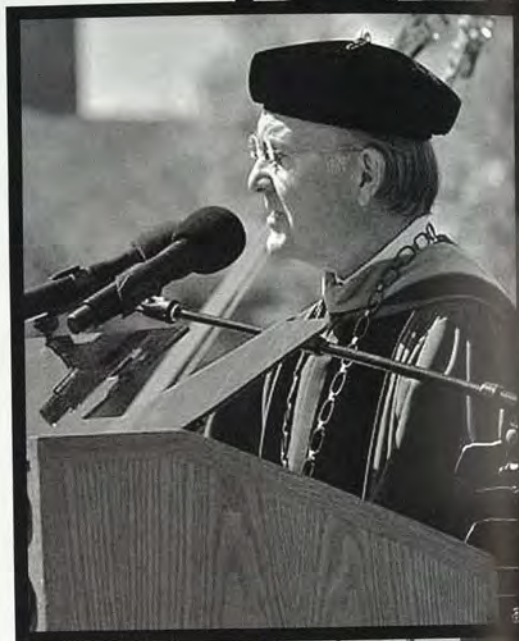

I hope you stay involved in the College as active alumni. Come to campus often for a game, a play, a concert, a lecture, Commencement or Reunions. Follow the improvements being made in the Athletic Complex, in the residence halls, in the classrooms. Meet with students, faculty or staff. If you can't visit the campus, reach out and connect with fellow alums, through the online community, the magazine or in other social and business venues. As you connect with each other and the campus, you'll be reminded that this community is passionate about Connecticut College. And that passion is what makes us strong.

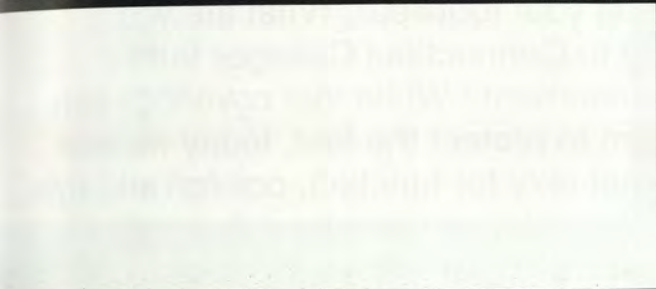

Above all, I hope you are as proud of yourselves today as Connecticut College is of you.

Sincerely,

Lee Higdon

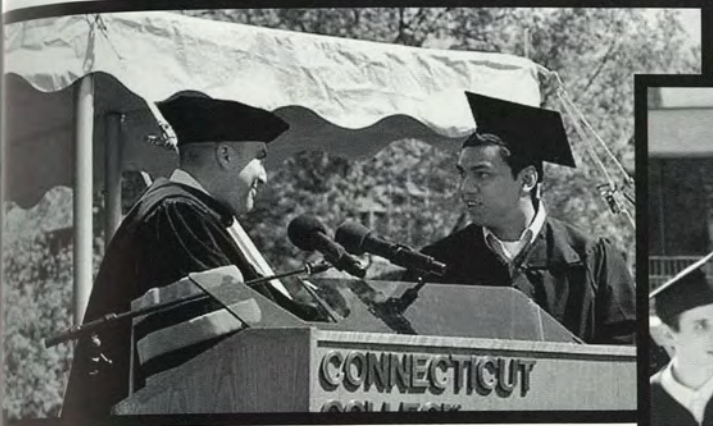

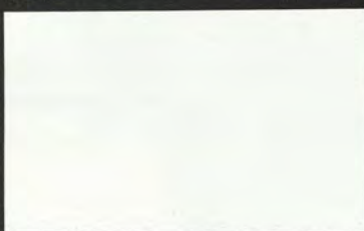

Well, graduates, faculty, staff, parents, guests and friends, as you sit there in your shoes and I stand here in my shoes I would like you to reflect on your footwear. What are you wearing to Connecticut Colleges 90th commencement? While foot coverings were first worn to protect the feet, today we wear shoes not only for function, comfort and style, but to characterize ourselves. Are you comfortable in your shoes this morning?

Let us now measure the steps we have taken: The Connecticut College footprint is our next step to collectively creating a new path for others to follow. Conn has taught us diversity, academic freedom and scholarship, social consciousness, change, and willingness to take action. It is now up to us to make use of these tools. If we can appreciate diversity, we can reduce hatred and war. If we believe that decreasing our carbon footprints will make a difference, we can fight the environmental crisis. If we continue research, discuss and appreciate the arts, we can innovate and redesign our world.

We will leave Conn with our new shoes shining and ready to be broken in. About 20 years ago many of our families prodded and pushed us to take our first baby steps. Thank you for encouraging us and now for celebrating our next giant step. Class of 2008, you and I stand not alone but together as we walk out onto a new path to share our Connecticut College footprint with the world!

Katy Serafin, senior class speaker

Graduates

The Class of 2008, our class, is a special group for a variety of reasons. We are ambitious, eclectic, creative, and have accomplished some truly impressive things over the past four years. Post-graduation we will continue the Connecticut College tradition of seeing new alumni move to all corners of the world carrying the Camel name and the Dromedary's predisposition of perseverance.

As we graduate today and move forward toward the next steps in our lives whatever those may be we will all leave this place with one thing in common: this college and the community that it has become for us over the past four years.

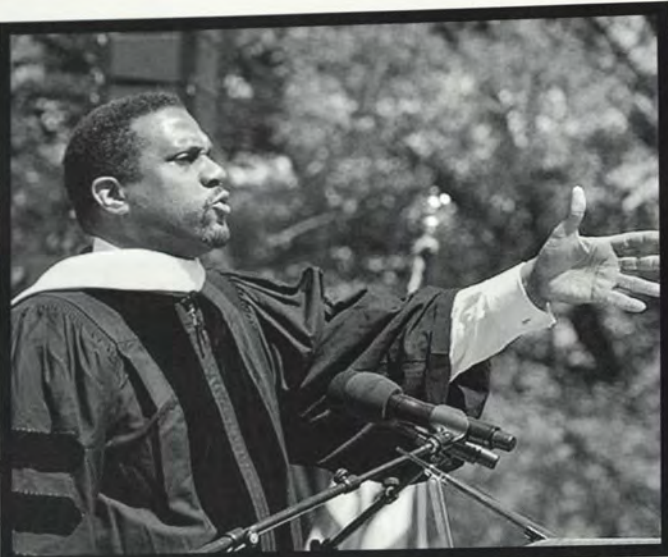

Each of us grew and changed here, and we all experienced and discovered something new over the course of our time here at Conn.

Lets not forget all of these things as we walk across this stage today, and lets, for one last time together, celebrate what we have achieved by showing our support for one another, because we have, in fact, achieved something incredible: a prestigious undergraduate degree from Connecticut College.

Thank you, all, and I wish each of you the best of luck in your future endeavors.

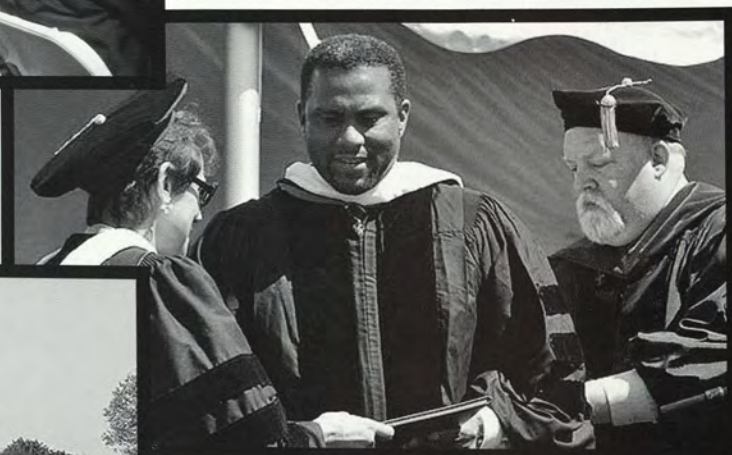

Amanda Barrett, 2008 class president

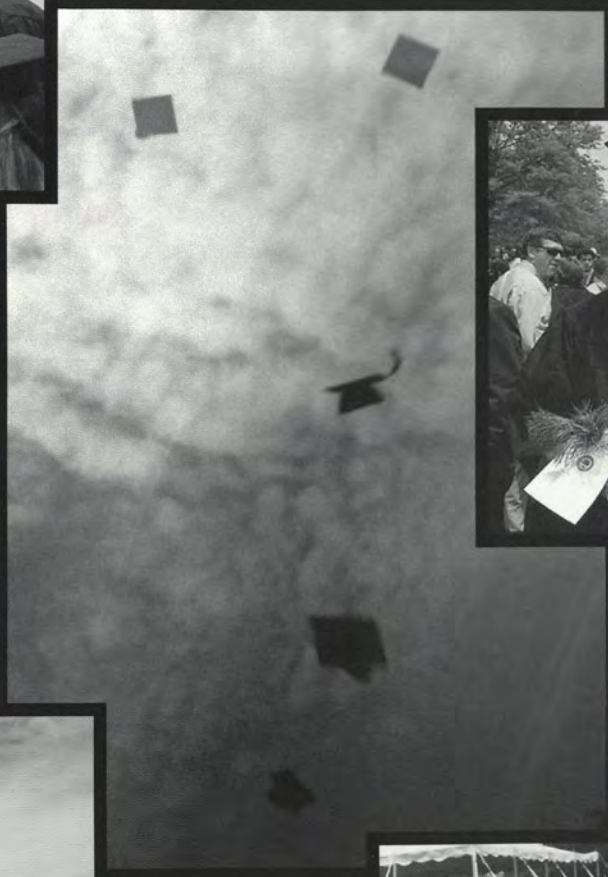

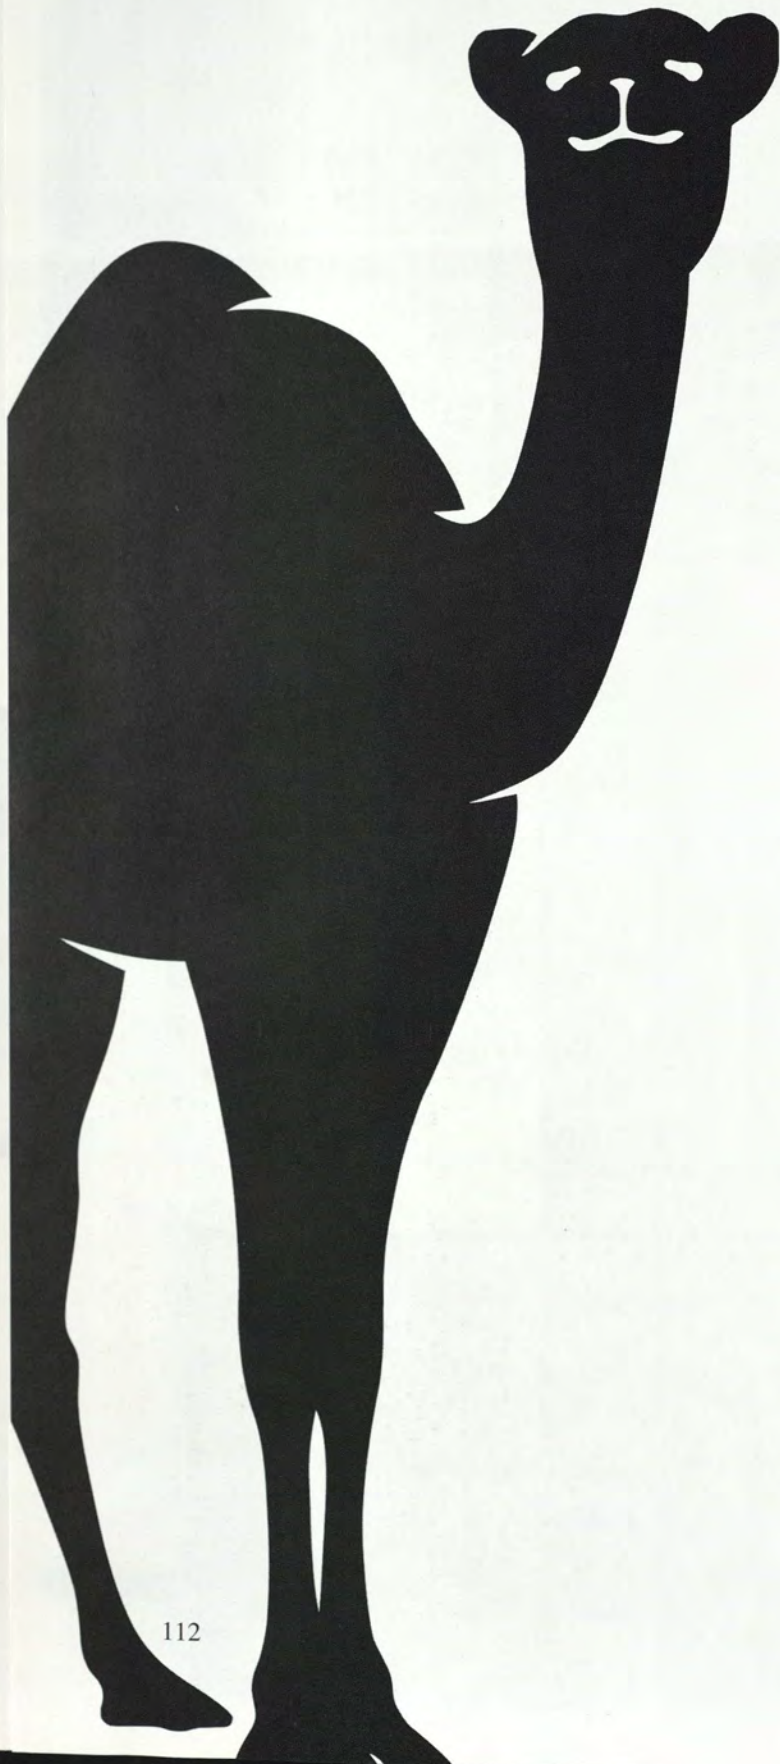

Today, we are sending you out into the world to be leaders - if we are ever going to live in a world that is as good as its promise, you are going to have to lead. I hope whatever you do, you do it with passion, purpose and principle.

On through the watching for that early birth
When, just as the soil tarnishes the weed,
The sturdy seedling with arched body comes
Shouldering its way and shedding the earth

Johann-Wilhelm Scheidt

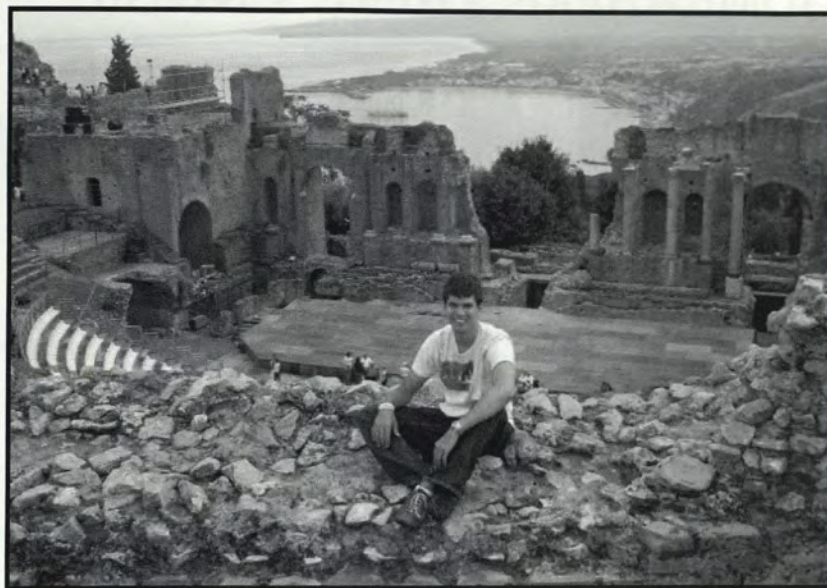

Dear Johann,

During your time at Connecticut College you have thrown yourself into your endeavors with the passion and intensity that characterizes all you do. Your athletic success as captain of the rowing team, your involvement and pride in the College's judicial system, and your devotion to your intellectual growth have pushed you to appreciate, understand, and harness your energies and passion. Your wide range of interests, your ability to think "outside the box" and your intellectual curiosity together with a great education from Connecticut College will take you far in life. Stay true to yourself. We wish you all the best for your future academic and intellectual endeavors.

*With much love,
Mom, Dad and Anna*

Sam Lindo

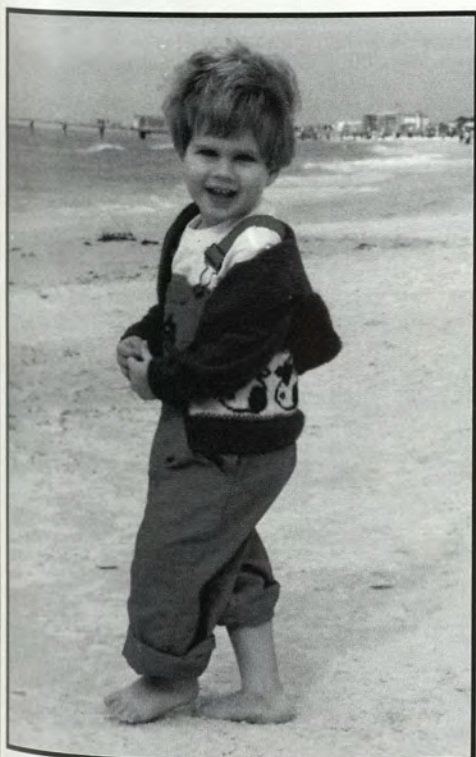

CONGRATULATIONS SAM,

We have loved watching you grow into a fine young man. We've had a lot of fun along the way, and we know we will continue to enjoy our times together. We wish you an exciting and rewarding future.

You're off to a great start.

Love,
Mom and Dad

SOMEWHERE THERE'S MUSIC...

ConnChords,

You have been my sisters, my friends, my everything for four years ~ I can honestly say that this group is one of the most important, enjoyable, and rewarding experiences of my life. It has brought me irreplaceable friends, incredible music, and a support system I can't imagine living without.

Thank you! To all ConnChords past, present, and future. I love you more than I can say. May the ConnChords always be the fun-loving, silly, exceptionally talented, caring group of girls I have experienced it to be.

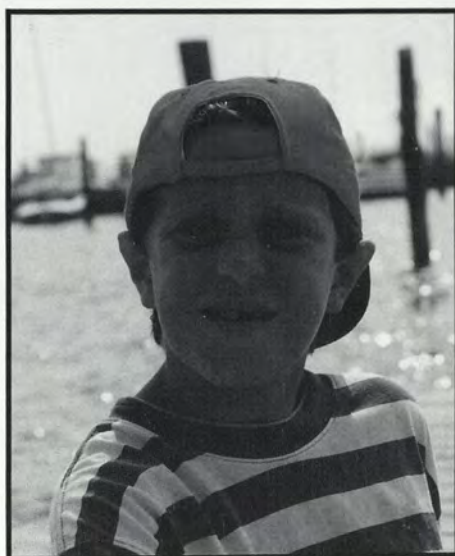

Love,

*Susannah Branch,

CONGRATS, ASHLEY!

Your time at Conn has gone quickly, when you leave you will be taking many happy memories with you into the next chapter of your life. May you always be able to do what you want. I hope you get to see the world. Please always follow your dreams, you can do anything!

I'm very lucky and proud to have you as my daughter.

*Go enjoy your life,
Love,
Mom*

Dan Bassett

GRADUATION CONGRATULATIONS DANIEL!

Conn's four years is an experience to remember for a lifetime; from classes you enjoyed to squash that exhausted; from the confinement of dorm rooms too small to the expanse of the Himalayas; from summers on Walloon to a Christmas in New Zealand.

Climbing, chumming, and competing, at Conn and around the world! We cherish your fine, funny intellect and your caring, competitive spirit.

Fly out into the world!

*Love,
Mom, Dad,
Matthew
and
Abby*

Nicole Porter

CONGRATULATIONS!

Finally, Nicole!!!

Whatsoever things are true,
Whatsoever things are honest,
whatsoever things are just,
whatsoever things are pure,
whatsoever things are lovely,
whatsoever things are of good report;
if there be any virtue,
and if there be any praise,
think on these things!!!

Praise God, you made it!
And I'm proud!!!

Well Done!

Love Always...

Emma Tang

Dear Em,

Just a short time ago we were giving you piggyback rides and "persuading" you to sell your Halloween candy. Now we go to you for advice and help, more often than the other way around. Throughout, your sense of humor, generosity, thoughtfulness, sensitivity and good sense have always made you a pleasure to be with. We love you more than words can say.

Love,
Mom, Baba, Alex and Jehpo

Robert F. Kiley, Jr.

May God bless and keep you always,
May your wishes all come true,
May you always do for others
And let others do for you.
May you build a ladder to the stars
And climb on every rung,
May you stay forever young,

May you grow up to be righteous,
May you grow up to be true,
May you always know the truth
And see the lights surrounding you.
May you always be courageous,
Stand upright and be strong,
May you stay forever young,

May your hands always be busy,
May your feet always be swift,
May you have a strong foundation
When the winds of changes shift.
May your heart always be joyful,
May your song always be sung,
May you stay forever young,
Forever young, forever young,
May you stay forever young.

Forever Young
