Houses

Living at Conn Coll

From south, central and up to north campus, there are 22 houses, each with their own unique style and spirit living all together at Connecticut College. From welcoming the freshman and house meeting to dominating in Camelympics and decorating for Festivus parties to dessert and dialogues and study breaks, your house was the place to be.

Everyone loves a good party and the Camels certainly know how to have a good time!

Thanks to SAC, SGA, houses, class councils and clubs

this year was filled with dinners, dances, and tons of fun for all. From Commencement through Graduation good times were had by each and every Connecticut College camel. This year we enjoyed Campelympics, the Halloween dance,

Festivus, Winter Formal, Spring Formal and of course, the unforgettable Floralia!

Class of 2010

The class of 2010 graduated 445 seniors on Sunday, May 23, 2010 on Connecticut College's Temple Green.

Jeffrey Sachs, one of the world's leading economists was the Key Note Speaker. Encouraging the new graduates, he said, "Your liberal arts education has empowered you to be effective citizens of the world. You're part of a community that is founded on the deepest faith that knowledge is power to be deployed for the common good."

The morning's ceremony also featured Senior Class President Alexandra Felfle and Riordan Frost as senior speakers. President Higdon spoke to the class as well, remarking, "There is always a bond with a class that comes in with a new president - we may have had some different experiences over the last four years, but we share many common memories; It will always make your class special in my mind." The Anna Lord Strauss Medal was awarded to Stefanie Jane Hinman and The Oakes and Louise Ames Prize was awarded to Thomas Blake McDonald.

GRANT PATRICK MORYAN

Dear Grant,

No parents ever had a better son (well, maybe Mary and Joseph). We could not be prouder (well, maybe if you cured cancer) or happier (well, maybe if we won Powerball). You never gave us a moment's worry (well, maybe once or twice) and you are always thoughtful and considerate (well, maybe you could call once in a while). Your sunny disposition always makes you a joy to be around (well, maybe not in the morning). You have lit up our lives like none of our other sons (well, we only have one). This is all to tell you how very much we love you and wish you all the best things life has to offer. You have been blessed with brains, looks, a kind heart, athleticism and loads of personality (well, we are your parents). If you use your talents wisely and share them with the world, you will have a life well lived. And one last thing, (well, you knew this was coming) always remember that life is short, so enjoy every sandwich.

XOXOXO Mam and Dad

CONGRATULATIONS

MICHAEL KOOREY

Our graduation wish for you

"A few friends who understand you and remain your friends

A work to do which has real value, without which the world would be poorer

A mind unafraid to travel, even though the trail be rough

An understanding heart

A sense of humor

Time for quiet, silent meditation

A feeling of the presence of God

The patience to wait for the coming of these things, with the wisdom to recognize them when they come"

Congratulations Michael

We love you,
