THE SAILOR BOY'S CAROL.

Words by THOMAS POWER Esq.          Adapted to the ALPINE HORN.

There's joy up-on the sparkling sea, sparkling sea, For blithe and gay the sailor tells of merry hours where pleasure dwells:

Who so happy, who so free! Hur- ra! hur- ra! hur- ra! hur- ra!

List to the note, list to the song Marked with gay- est mea- sure

Thoughts of his home, thoughts of his fair Bring their tru- est pleas- ure. La, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la,

Though tempests move the boundless main,
His song is heard amid the gale
That swells the vessel's graceful sail:
Dear the feeling, sweet the strain!

Hurra! hurra! &c.

Come then to the sparkling sea
Where pleasure dwells without a care,
Where skies are bright and winds are fair,
For the joyous and the free.

Hurra! hurra! &c.
