SISTER LOVED.

A Song.

Written and Composed by

GEORGE LINLEY.

BOSTON. Published by OLIVER DITSON. 135 Washington St.

Sister dear! Years have bound us; we through storm and shine have rov'd,

Sister lov'd thy form caressing; while I press thee to my heart,

Shar'd each other's pain and pleasure; time our hearts hath prov'd;

Oft I think our lot is happy, never once to part.
Still we climb Life's Hill, to-gether, Side by side, our wishes lie, One fond feel-ing

Still to heartly voice enchanting, Look into thy laughing eyes, Who so cold as both un - ti - ng, Love, that cannot die... Flow'rs of Earth and not to love thee, Nor thy fondness prize? Flow'rs of earth and

O - cean's treasure, Love - ly tho' they be, All, with thy dear self com-par-ing,

ocean's treasure, Lovely tho' they be, All, with thy dear self com-par-ing,

Worthless, seem to me... worth - less seem, to me...
