The musical score is written for a brass band. It consists of three systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff joined by a brace. The first system is labeled 'f TRUMPET SOLO.' and 'ff'. The second system has a '3' under the first measure of the treble staff. The third system is labeled 'f TRUMPET.' The music is in common time (C) and features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The key signature has one sharp (F#).

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1836, by Parker & Ditson, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Massachusetts.

First system of musical notation. The piano part (bottom staff) features a series of chords and moving lines, with dynamic markings ff (fortissimo) appearing twice. The violin part (top staff) plays a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes.

Second system of musical notation. The piano part continues with chords and moving lines. The violin part continues its melodic line.

Third system of musical notation. The piano part includes dynamic markings fz. (forzando) and p (piano). The violin part continues with a melodic line.

Fourth system of musical notation. The piano part includes dynamic markings fz., p, and f. The violin part continues with a melodic line.

Fifth system of musical notation. The piano part continues. The trumpet part (top staff) is introduced with the label "TRUMPET." and plays a melodic line.

Sixth system of musical notation. The piano part continues. The violin part includes first and second endings, marked "1st" and "2d" respectively.
