Her lips are made for kiss-ing..... The boys walk miles..... To see the dain-ty dim-ples..... that charm you when she smiles..... Her waist is the waist of a sen-si-ble girl whose con-sti-tu-tion is sound;..... And I find that the Slow and sustained.

Such a dear old sweetheart you've al-ways been, Since the day I met you on the vil-lage green. Age can-not change you, though we're grow-ing old; Your hair is touch'd with sil-ver, but your heart's all gold. Such a heart's all gold.

Thro' the Springtime and the Summer
When the glorious days are past Thro' the coming chill of Autumn
And the winters icy blast
I shall ever see the picture
In its frame of earth and sky
The garden old, the maiden sweet,
'Twill last me till I die.
Chorus:- In the garden. etc.
