The "Old Granite State!"
We have eight other Brothers,
And of Sisters, just another,
Besides our Father, and our Mother,
In the “Old Granite State”
With our present number,
There are fifteen in the tribe;
Thirteen sons and daughters,
And their history we bring.

Yes while the air is ringing,
With their wild mountain singing,
We the news you are bringing,
From the “Old Granite State”
'Tis the tribe of Jesse,
'Tis the tribe of Jesse,
'Tis the tribe of Jesse,
And their several names we sing.

David, Noah, Andrew, Zephy, (aniel)
Caleb, Joshua, Jesse, and Beny, (Jam)
Judson, Rhoda, John, and Asa,
And Abbe, are our names:
We’re the sons of Mary,
Of the tribe of Jesse,
And we now address ye,
With our native mountain song.

We are all real Yankees,
We are all real Yankees,
We are all real Yankees,
From the “Old Granite State”
And by prudent guessing,
And by prudent guessing,
And by prudent guessing,
We shall whittle through the world.

Liberty is our motto
Equal liberty is our motto
In the “Old Granite State”
We despise oppression
We despise oppression
We despise oppression
And we cannot be enslaved.

Yes we’re friends of emancipation
And we’re singing the proclamation
Till it echoes through our nation
From the “Old Granite State
That the tribe of Jesse
That the tribe of Jesse
That the tribe of Jesse
Are the friends of equal rights.

We are all Washingtonians,
Yes we’re all Washingtonians,
Hea’n bless the Washingtonians,
Of the “Old Granite State”
We are all teetotalers,
We are all teetotalers,
We are all teetotalers,
And have signed the Temperance pledge.

Now three cheers altogether,
Shout Columbia’s people ever,
Yankee hearts none can sever,
In the “Old Sister States”
Like our Sires before us,
We will swell the chorus,
Till the Heavens o’re us,
Shall rebound the loud hussa.

Hurrah! hurrah! hurrah!
The "Old Granite State".
bound the loud huz-za.
