1855

There is Music in the Voice We Love

Elmar Ruan Coates Esq.

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.conncoll.edu/sheetmusic

Recommended Citation
Coates, Elmar Ruan Esq., "There is Music in the Voice We Love" (1855). Historic Sheet Music Collection. 1085.
https://digitalcommons.conncoll.edu/sheetmusic/1085

This Score is brought to you for free and open access by the Greer Music Library at Digital Commons @ Connecticut College. It has been accepted for inclusion in Historic Sheet Music Collection by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Connecticut College. For more information, please contact bpancier@conncoll.edu. The views expressed in this paper are solely those of the author.
There is Music in the Voice we Love,

Music and Words

BY

ELMAR RUAN COATES ESQ.

Philadelphia, LEE & WALKER 18th Chestnut St.

Entered according to act of Congress in the year 1838 by Lee & Walker, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the East Dist. of Pa.
"THERE'S MUSIC IN THE VOICE WE LOVE."

When stealing o'er a moonlit sea,
There's music in the plaintive lute.

When filled with mournful melody:
But
there are notes far sweeter still, More tender than the cooing dove, Re

-splendid joys our bosoms fill, When listening to the voice we love. Should fate wash our pillows With tears of grief,

sorrow and sadness fill with dismay,

When life's heaving billows Waft no relief. 'Tis

When woe's thrilling madnessslow, Wears us away. 'Tis

colla voce
then we woo those silver sounds, Harmonious with the spheres above,

Tis then ah! then the truth is found That music fills the voice we love

That 'neath the skies cannot be found, Save in the gentle voice we love.

The sailor hams some ocean air,
The trav'ler hears the convent chime,
The soldier mindful of his fair,
Now vents his soul in lyric rhyme.
But all select the tender strains—
Companions for the moments lone,
The notes that soothe their racking pains,
When tuned by lips they love at home.