Moderato

Till ready

Most ev'ry body in the city
When first we came down to the city
They say they're glad they left the village
Bright lights and city folks around us
They're hearts a memory stays of
After a while our memory roams to

Comes from some little town,
Said good-bye to the farm,
Glad cause they been around,
Seem like a magic charm,
Good old Fashion Way's.
Dear old Home sweet Home;

Olden days, Golden days, Let me dream of old familiar ways, Church bells ring Choirs sing

Same old lovers lane and Everything Mother's knee calling me,
