Moderato

Most ev'rybody in the city
When first we came down to the city
They say They're glad they left the village Bright lights and city folks a-round us deep in they're hearts a mem'ry stays of Good old Fashion Way's;

Comes from some little town,
Said good-bye to the farm,
Glad cause they been a-round. But Seem like a magic charm. But after a while our mem'ry roams to Dear old Home sweet Home;

Chorus

Old-en days, Golden days, Let me dream of old familiar ways, Church bells ring Choirs sing

Same old lovers lane and Everything Mother's knee calling me,

Millions couldn't buy that memory, More and more, I'm yearning for, Those

Old en Golden days
