THOSE TASSELS ON THE BOOTS.

1. "Twas at a Fancy Ball,... I met my charmer fair,... 'Midst waltzing Swells and dashing Belles, The prettiest dancer there.

I watch'd her while the music play'd The latest Waltz of Coote's, And fell in love, no not with her, With the Tassels on her Boots, Oh! yes,

No. 53-1.
Spoken: Yes! through those little peepholes in that pretty white petticoat I could plainly see—

CHORUS.

Those tassels on the Boots... A style I'm sure that suits, ... Our love-ly girls with hair in curls, Those tassels on the Boots.....

2.

I watch'd her up the stairs,
Where we to supper went,
Upon those tassels on her boots,
My soul was so intent;
They asked me to propose a health,
Said I here's one that suits,
So fill your glasses up and drink
To the tassels on the boots.

Spoken—I meant to drink the ladies health but I could think of nothing but—

Cuo.—Those tassels on the boots, &c,

3.

I asked this Girl "if I
Might call," she said, "you may,
But tell me why you gaze upon
The ground in such a way?
You're sad perhaps, for life is full
Of very bitter fruits;"
"Oh no," I said, "I'm looking at Those tassels on your boots."

Spoken—What is a more lovely sight when you walk down Broadway than to look at—

Cuo.—Those tassels on the boots, &c.

I call'd on her next day,
And Cupid's cruel shoots,
Soon made me throw myself before,
Those tassels on her boots;
Now when we're married, and we've got,
A lot of little toots,
I'll make them, whether boys or girls,
Wear tassels on their boots.

Spoken—If I were to have fifty children they should every one wear those pretty, pretty, pretty—

Cuo.—Those tassels on the boots, &c.
HITCHCOCK'S HALF-DIME SERIES OF MUSIC FOR THE MILLION.

Believing that whatever tends to amuse and instruct, to cultivate and develop the mind, or to elevate the character and diversify the nature of Home enjoyments, is ever welcome to the American People—this series is respectfully presented. Our object is to enable all classes—rich and poor—who have a desire for Music, to become possessed of all the popular productions of the day, without incurring an almost prohibitory expense. In a word, to supply

Choice Music at a Price within the Reach of All;

To assist the young beginner, as well as to cater to the requirements of professionals.

One or more numbers will be issued weekly. Original and Imported vocal and instrumental pieces will be catalogued as issued, while the variety will embrace Sacred, Operatic, Pathetic, Comic, and in fact, all classes of Music to meet the popular demand.

The price of each Number will be FIVE CENTS. The following are
